

I have an XM tuner and not a standard radio at home where I listen for the traffic in the morning. Censoring XM radio in this way would be forcing me to purchase a standard radio for my room in the morning. If the NAB has its way, I, and millions of others, will be forced to file a grievance with the FTC.

Sincerely,
Dave Foley